

Faulty Power Steering Pump. The power steering pump is responsible for generating hydraulic pressure, assisting in steering wheel movement. If the pump becomes worn out or develops a fault, it can result in a loss of power steering assistance and trigger the warning light. A malfunctioning power steering pump may require repair or replacement.

The Sport ran from 1984-96, with a two-door model from 1989. From 1984-1990 the Jeep Wagoneer was offered with a fancy Limited option. These can be recognized by vertically stacked headlights from 1985 and the Limited featured vinyl wood trim on the sides, like the full-size Grand Wagoneer. The Wagoneer was replaced by the Briarwood for 1991-92.
