Most renewable energy investment flows will go to solar photovoltaic and wind in the key markets of China, Europe, and the US. However, there needs to be greater allocation to developing markets ??? Africa accounted for a mere 1% of new renewable energy capacity installations globally last year. The private sector has a major role to play.

, Allianz Capital Partners has been dedicated to renewables and is one of the world's largest financial investors in this asset class. Investments in wind and solar projects offer an attractive annual income stream at an acceptable risk-return profile. Our Renewables team combines many years of experience in investment structuring

Allianz Global Investors announces that the Allianz Renewable Energy Fund II (AREF II) has been fully invested within 24 months following the purchase of further photovoltaic plants in Italy and France. The issuing period for AREF II to European institutional investors began in March 2016.

Allianz Group is adapting its guidelines to pragmatically provide insurance and investment in renewable energy projects. The changes aim to support and speed up the transition of energy companies, particularly in Asia and Eastern Europe, where the adaptation from coal to renewables is difficult and less advanced than in Europe or the United States.
