

Ampion is putting in solar panels in Hermon. I was wondering if anyone in any of the other areas they have opened up has used them and if there is any real savings using them. I don't like the ???

Ampion connects people in Maine with Community Solar farms to help lower their energy costs and protect the environment. Community Solar is one of the easiest ways to support clean energy and save money while you're doing it!

While Maine's program is relatively new, dating to 2019, it's an aggressive approach that has already enabled dozens of community solar farms to be developed in the state. Bringing investment, employment, and clean energy choice to the state.

As another community solar company that operates in Maine, we can confirm Ampion is legitimate. But we understand why it doesn't always feel that way and why this program can feel confusing. When have you ever paid a second company for "one" service?

In 2019, Maine legislators passed a law to encourage the development of community solar and other renewable projects. One of the programs established in the shared energy billing program, they allow customers who are not in a position to have their own rooftop projects to still participate in renewable energy projects.

Ampion, a community solar subscription management company, and Navisun, an independent power producer, signed a long-term, strategic partnership to bring solar to commercial, industrial and residential customers in the Northeast and Midwest.
