

Rodgers" brought in Led Zeppelin manager Peter Grant and Bad Company became the first band signed to Zeppelin's Swan Song label. "I had to fight to get the management and the record company to accept the name Bad Company," explains Rodgers. "They thought it was a terrible name. Peter Grant called a meeting and the band met beforehand.

BAD COMPANY SOLO GUITAR EFFECTS

Are you looking for guitar pedals for a clean and prominent solo? Well, we present 20 great pedals for guitar solos for 2024. A guitar pedal is a foot-operated effects unit for guitarists. These pedals alter the guitar's incoming signal to get the desired result. Pedals modify and reroute the guitar signal using either analog or digital

Anyone know if the solo in "cant get enough" is a octave effect or is two guitar players. If its two players, can this be simulated somehow? thanksd1. Jump to content. Existing user? I used the Fender Esquire for rhythm because it's always nice and clean. Then I used the Les Paul Junior for the lead parts???always through a 100w Marshall, usually without effects. I did use a pedal on songs like "Bad Company" "?????" a Morley, which is a big foot pedal that gave me almost a Leslie-like effect, very watery.
