

What is reflect Orbital?

Reflect Orbital sells sunlight from orbit to solar farms and large-scale lighting applications after sunset using a very large constellation of in-space reflectors. More hours of sunlight translates into higher solar energy production for existing solar farms and other economic benefits.

Does reflect Orbital sell sunlight after dark?

However, these traits are at the core of Reflect Orbital, an energy startup with a mission so audacious it borders on science fiction: selling sunlight after dark.

Can a 'reflect orbital' project a 5-kilometer-wide spot of light?

We've developed a system where we can project a 5-kilometer-wide spot of light anywhere in the world after sunset. Reflect Orbital plans to sell sunlight by placing a massive mirror in space that reflects sunlight onto the Earth, a strategy that the Soviet Union tried many years ago.

Could 'reflect orbital' be a space venture?

The potential applications range from lighting up entire cities to providing solar farms with much-needed energy during the night. The journey to secure funding for such an ambitious venture wasn't easy. Reflect Orbital caught the eye of Sequoia Capital, becoming the firm's first space investment since SpaceX in 2020.

What challenges does reflect Orbital face?

Investors struggled to grasp the concept, often questioning the feasibility of reflecting sunlight from space on such a scale. But a viral video demonstration with over two million views showcasing their technology and approach eventually won investors over. Technically, the challenges Reflect Orbital faces are as large as its vision.

Is 'reflect orbital' a space investment?

Reflect Orbital caught the eye of Sequoia Capital, becoming the firm's first space investment since SpaceX in 2020. "It took us a while to close the deal," Semmelhack admits. Investors struggled to grasp the concept, often questioning the feasibility of reflecting sunlight from space on such a scale.
