You can expect the same key safety features whether you're in the market for 1000W or 2000W inverters. A 2000W inverter could run as little as $325, with more premium models available. These devices aren't double the price of 1000W inverters, even though they deliver double the capacity.
