

By embarking on ambitious new energy projects, Montenegro assumes a leadership role in the region's shift towards decarbonization. Its commitment to renewable energy sets an example for neighboring countries, encouraging cooperation and knowledge sharing in the pursuit of common sustainable development goals.

Director Lorkowski was keen to hear updates on Montenegro's efforts in transposing the Clean Energy package and its coal phase-out strategies. Ranked as the 2023 Energy Community priority, regional approach to carbon pricing and setting in place the decarbonisation roadmap stood high on agenda.

Montenegro has achieved a remarkable feat in its energy sector, with electricity exports reaching a staggering 190 million from January to October this year. This impressive figure accounts for 35% of the nation's total exports, highlighting a

EPCG is a leader in Montenegro's economic development, focusing on electricity generation, supply, and trading. Committed to sustainability, EPCG invests in green energy, new technologies, and digital ???

Through the partnership with CAF II, Leader Energy intends to accelerate its robust pipeline across the region and reinforce its position as one of the largest pure-play renewable energy company in Malaysia.

Since then, we have expanded our footprint to Southeast Asia countries and Taiwan. We have also embarked on our sustainability journey in 2018 in support of urgent global call to transition the energy system from fossil fuels to renewable sources. Going forward, in line with our climate goals, we will only be investing in renewable energy system.

Leader Energy Group Berhad (formerly known as Leader Energy Holding Berhad) (a wholly-owned subsidiary of HNG Capital Sdn Bhd) and its subsidiaries (collectively, "Leader Energy Group" or "the Group") has a track record of about 30 years in the power industry. The Company is principally an investment holding company.

??ukanovi?? outlined plans to deploy battery storage solutions and maximise the use of hydropower infrastructure to enhance energy efficiency. Montenegro's government sees these steps as crucial in positioning the country as a regional leader in renewable energy and achieving long-term energy security in line with EU sustainability goals. As

EPCG is a leader in Montenegro's economic development, focusing on electricity generation, supply, and trading. Committed to sustainability, EPCG invests in green energy, new technologies, and digital transformation.

By embarking on ambitious new energy projects, Montenegro assumes a leadership role in the region's shift towards decarbonization. Its commitment to renewable energy sets an example for neighboring countries, encouraging cooperation and knowledge sharing in the pursuit of common sustainable development goals.

Leader Energy is pursuing the Group's long-term climate goal to achieve net-zero GHG emissions by 2030, in support of the climate goals set under the Paris Agreement, i.e. to limit global warming to below 2°C and preferably below 1.5°C, compared to pre-industrial levels.