

President. Daniel Pipes, a historian, has led the Middle East Forum since its founding in 1994. He taught at Chicago, Harvard, Pepperdine, and the U.S. Naval War College. He served in five U.S. administrations, received two presidential appointments, and testified before many congressional committees. The author of 16 books on the Middle East

Shutterstock. The Islamic Republic of Iran has again launched hundreds of missiles at Israel. Israelis are in bomb shelters, and Israel's many anti-missile systems are in overdrive defending Israeli towns and cities from Iranian rockets. Iranian missiles have reportedly scored dozens of hits across central and southern Israel.

Gregg Roman. Gregg Roman. Gregg Roman functions as the chief operations officer for the Forum, responsible for day-to-day management, communications, and financial resource development. Mr. Roman previously served as director of the Community Relations Council of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh. In 2014, he was named one of the ten

. ?. Michael Rubin. Michael Rubin is a senior fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, where he specializes in Middle Eastern countries, particularly Iran and Turkey. His career includes time as a Pentagon official, with field experiences in Iran, Yemen, and Iraq, as well as engagements with the Taliban prior to 9/11.

Middle East Quarterly - Current Issue. Founded in 1994 by Daniel Pipes, MEQ is the Middle East Forum's journal intended for both scholars and the educated public. Policymakers, opinion-makers, academics, and journalists write for and read the Quarterly, which is known for exclusive interviews, in-depth historical articles, and book reviews on

3 ? Islamist Watch. Launched in 2006, Islamist Watch is a project of the Middle East Forum. We work to combat the ideas and institutions of lawful Islamism in the United States and throughout the West. Arguing that "radical Islam is the problem, moderate Islam is the solution," we seek to expose the Islamist organizations that currently

Middle East Forum Wire. This report is based off a talk that the author gave on October 1, 2024 in New York City. Israel has been at war for one year, fighting enemies on seven fronts. Adobe Stock. On October 7, 2023, Hamas shattered Israel's illusion of security. In a single day, the militant group killed 1,200 Israelis and took more than

Nasrallah's Elimination, Plus Damage to Hezbollah's Leadership and Operational Capabilities, Marks a Potential Turning Point in the Middle East. October 7, 2024. ?. Yossi Kupperwasser. Brigadier General (Res) Yossi Kupperwasser - former head of the research division at the IDF Intelligence corps, fellow at the Jerusalem Center for Security

Campus Watch. CAMPUS WATCH, a project of the Middle East Forum, reviews and critiques Middle East studies in North America with an aim to improving them. The project mainly addresses five problems: analytical failures, the mixing of politics with scholarship, intolerance of alternative views, apologetics, and the abuse of power over students.