

Who is Sun King?

Sun King's journey began at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, where its founders set out to create affordable, reliable, and clean energy solutions for off-grid communities. Sun King, initially known as Greenlight Planet, was founded in 2007 by three University of Illinois graduates: Patrick Walsh, Anish Thakkar, and Sam Goldman.

How did Sun King grow?

As Sun King grew, it expanded its product line to include solar home systems designed to meet diverse customer needs. These systems allowed families to power lights, charge mobile phones, and run small appliances. The company's customer-focused approach and commitment to affordability drove its rapid growth across Africa and Asia.

How much money has Sun King raised?

Sun King's success attracted significant investor interest, leading to a series of funding rounds that fueled its expansion. Since its inception, Sun King has reportedly raised over $400 million across multiple rounds. A major milestone was its $260 million Series D round in April 2022, led by General Atlantic.

Who founded Sun King & Greenlight planet?

Sun King, initially known as Greenlight Planet, was founded in 2007 by three University of Illinois graduates: Patrick Walsh, Anish Thakkar, and Sam Goldman. Patrick, an engineering student, had worked on a biodiesel generator for a rural village in Eastern India.

Is Sun King profitable in Kenya?

In Kenya, one in five people use Sun King, with 18 million Kenyans benefiting from its operations over a decade. The company's user base in Nigeria tripled in just one year. Despite its rapid expansion, Sun King has remained consistently profitable.

How did Sun King expand in India?

The company quickly expanded, using local agents, known as "Sun King Saathis," to reach off-grid communities in India. Sun King's early success in India paved the way for expansion into Sub-Saharan Africa, where they replicated their direct sales model in countries like Kenya and Uganda.
