I personally recommend Auskey power bank 20k mAh. It's fairly cheap and also support fast charging. I always take this Power bank with me on vacation. It's great for extra battery through out the day. Has 5v 2.4a USB port.

I currently have a Switch Lite and still in the market for a proper power bank to use just in case. Don't want to always carry the semi-bulky power adaptor.
I'm sure this has been discussed or asked in the past so I apologize in advance. Best would obviously be for your phone and switch and power bank to be able to use the same charging
