The Printable Solar System Mobile was specifically created to accommodate a large multi-age co-op class. While viewing a Solar System slideshow, our science co-op colored, cut, glued, and constructed a paper mobile. Though this mobile is not a typical mobile with moving pieces, it does feature hanging planets and two sides.

Hanging planets are an eye-catching and educational centrepiece for any child's room. Whether you've got tons of space for a big display or just want a special little solar system mobile to hang over a nursery cot, we've collected a supersonic variety of different hanging planets so there's one that's perfect for you.

PLANET MOBILE HANGING SOLAR SYSTEM

Hanging from the ceiling, unexpectedly tying it all together, is a simple arrangement of planets you could find in a museum gift shop. Now, we've waxed poetic before on the merits of mobiles (not just for babies), but solar system models, in particular, are an underrated design hero. They might seem a bit too esoteric or infantile, but trust

Step 12: Hanging Your Solar System Mobile Using a stiff floral wire as a way to hang the planets, I used needle-nosed pliers to turn a loop at the end of the wire. I carefully skewered the styrofoam planet with the straight end of the wire, and pulled the wire through until the looped end was snug against the planet's surface.

You can just tie the other end of the string to your hanging stick or again use sticky tape to attach it. To be an accurate Solar System mobile you will need to put the planets in the correct order of distance from the Sun. This is Sun ??? Mercury -Venus ??? ???
