Does Portugal have a solar market?

Portugal, however, offers room for expansion in the self-consumption and floating solar markets. The Portuguese government devised two market mechanisms, auctions and direct agreements, with the goal of installing 9 GW of PV capacity by 2030. Permitting issues, though, might be impeding the accomplishment of this objective.

Can Portugal boost its solar self-consumption growth?

Portugal may be able to boost its solar self-consumption growth by developing green hydrogen. This emerging low-carbon energy source is anticipated to promote solar development throughout the Iberian Peninsula. Electrolysis is powered by inexpensive renewable electricity.

Which energy source is the fastest growing in Portugal?

As of June 2022, solar is the fastest-growing energy source in Portugal, with almost 2.2 GW of capacity installed, according to DGEG. But according to a recent Bloomberg report, financial issues including growing inflation and equipment costs -- which could be a barrier for developers -- are to blame for relevant project delays.

What is Universal Kraft doing in Portugal?

Universal Kraft is engaged in many solar market initiatives in Portugal, such as the development of solar to hydrogen in Chamusca and the production of solar to hydrogen in Torres Vedras, which will be fed into the natural gas network. Universal H2 is being developed in tandem with both initiatives.

Will Portugal become a gigawatt market?

João Garrido thinks Portugal might become a gigawatt market with more than 2 GW installed annually, but the country is still far below the 9 GW target set for 2030. The Portuguese solar market's fastest-growing section relates to small-scale self-consumption installations.
