

RPOWER Point of Sale is the restaurant point of sale system powered by US-based technology firm RPOWER. The company provides various technology products focused on payments and the hospitality niche. RPOWER Point of Sale focuses on the core components of a restaurant's business. It allows users to accept payments and process orders effortlessly.

The seamless Worldpay integration increases the power of your RPOWER restaurant point of sale system with a number of features to streamline your operation: Merchant accounts. Unlike many other payment processing companies, Worldpay processes all transactions in house rather than using a third-party processor. This provides increased security

Made for retail beer, wine, and liquor stores of all sizes, mPowers" point of sale system serves as a great tool to keep your business on track and running smoothly. Inventory Management. Managing a liquor store with thousands items can become very time consuming with a basic cash register. By utilizing a pos system, you can manage your

RASI integrated with your RPOWER point of sale system creates a total restaurant management system! Restaurant Accounting Services, Inc. (RASI) isn't software-in-a-box; they're experts in restaurant accounting, providing busy restaurateurs with solutions to not only survive in this competitive business, but thrive.

A kitchen display system isn't just an upgraded ticket, it's a critical component of your overall workflow strategy. Learn more about how RPOWER POS makes it easy for you to start benefiting from the efficiencies of a kitchen display system today.

With the RPOWER pizza POS system and an online ordering platform, you can easily accept orders from customers without any intervention from your staff. Streamline Your Operation With Kitchen Display Systems. Manually relaying orders from phone calls, walk-ins, and delivery apps is confusing and prone to errors. If you want to make sure your

RPOWER POS, a champion of innovation in restaurant point of sale software development, launches its highly anticipated release of RPOWER v2019. This software release brings with it features and functions that will help restaurant owners operate with greater efficiency and profitability??including a new graphical user interface, as well as a real-time cloud reporting a?|

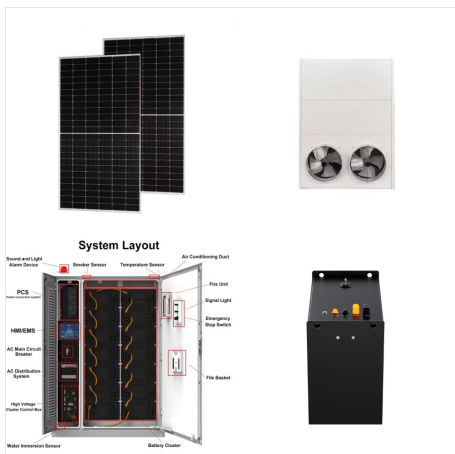

The RPOWER corporate cafeteria POS system allows you to accept contactless payments, making your customer experience safe, convenient, and efficient. Integrated Loyalty. Incentivize guests to frequent your cafeteria by offering a loyalty program. Use RPOWER's integrated loyalty features to quickly set up rewards programs, coupons, and limited

Seasoned restaurant point of sale software. From fine dining and nightclubs to counter service, cafeterias, delivery, and order pick-up, RPOWER POS is suitable for any style of business. Our flagship POS software ensures unmatched flexibility, reliability, and speed for today's restaurants.

Grubhub sends the order directly to your RPOWER POS system for restaurants and bars. As you're finishing up prep for the takeout meal, a Grubhub driver (or your own) picks up the order from your restaurant and delivers it to your customer. Skip the line and order online.

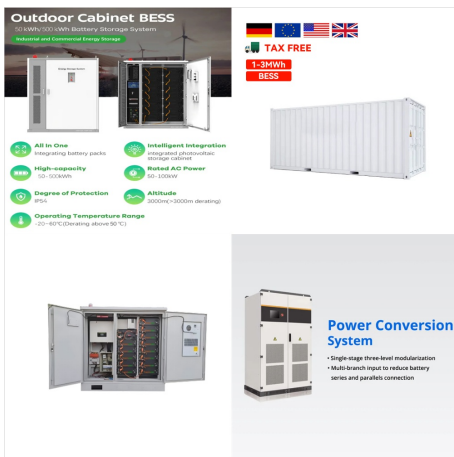

Since you are seamlessly integrated to Uber Eats through RPOWER, orders are transferred directly into your RPOWER POS system without the need for any extra hardware. Order for pickup or delivery. The days of waiting around reception until an order is complete are over. Uber Eats makes it just as convenient to order for pick up as ordering for

RESTAURANT ACCOUNTING SOFTWARE
RPOWER Restaurant Accounting Software BOOK A DEMO. After setting up inventory recognition through your RPOWER point of sale terminal, the database will automatically deduct from stored inventory data as you make sales throughout the day. Inventory reports are quick and easy to extract from your RPOWER

RPOWER keystroke and system logs never contain sensitive cardholder information. Any and all credit card data is inaccessible to anyone beyond strategically designated RPOWER Corporate employees. RPOWER Certified Resellers, RPOWER support technicians, nor RPOWER merchants themselves, regardless of their access to the RPOWER POS application or RPower, a leading provider of secure restaurant point of sale (POS) software, has been expanding its functionality and customer base since its inception in 1994. As an advocate for innovation in POS technology, RPower continues to add more inclusive features with each new software release.

RPOWER offers cloud real-time reporting across web reports, dashboard and a mobile app, enabling you to access your point of sale (POS) data 24/7 and stay connected and in control of your business. You can set custom alerts, view reports a?|

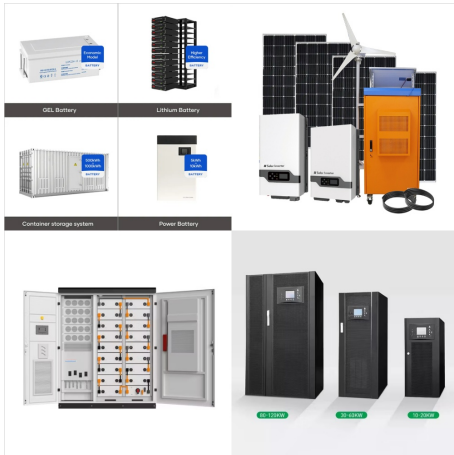

Some restaurant point of sale systems offer merchant services directly, while others allow you to outsource. Some incorporate processing fees into the overall price, while others charge a monthly fee or fee per transaction. In any case, make sure you understand any contracts that are involved, including contract length and terms, as well as how

A Safe and Reliable Point of Sale System EMV, NFC, Apple Pay, You Name It. Whether your customers use credit card, cash, EMV, or NFC to pay their tab, RPOWER Family Dining POS accepts it all to delight your guests and keep you paid.

RPOWER POS and DoorDash Integration: take-out and deliver for the 21st century. Online ordering and off-site dining has revolutionized the restaurant industry a?? and made the choice of which restaurant POS system to use even more important.

RPower POS Review a?? Company Overview. Rpower POS is offered by RPOWER POSa??a provider that was founded in 1994. The main objective of this provider is to offer a point of sale system that is geared towards minimizing costs, enhancing efficiency and a?|

Ensure that your team is fully prepared and equipped for peak times by integrating with RPOWER's kitchen display system. Illegible, lost, or forgotten tickets should be a thing of the past. Download our free guide: How to Use your POS to Increase Profitability Get eBook

RPOWER POS and Get Beyond Integration: Take the Guesswork Out of Restaurant Management. Get Beyond (formerly known as "PeachWorks") offers a comprehensive application suite that gives you the power to oversee all back-office operations seamlessly.

Illegible, lost, or forgotten tickets will be a thing of the past when you integrate with RPOWER's kitchen display system (KDS). Your KDS system connects with orders in real time and even incorporates online orders with the option to let customers know when their order is ready.

From additional infrastructure to changes in front of house duties, mobile point-of-sale systems require additional considerations to ensure they're implemented properly. In order to get the most out of your restaurant point of sale system, make sure to choose one that offers the features, functionality, and integrations that drive your business.

RPOWER point of sale offers unmatched speed and a suite of powerful features built for today's restaurants. From mobile ordering to payroll solutions and beyond, it empowers your customers with everything their business needs to thrive. Become an RPOWER Reseller to add one of the most powerful, flexible, and versatile point of sale

RPOWER offers fine dining POS systems complete with the marketing tools and integration capabilities your restaurant needs to ensure your promotions are successful and your profits are high. Interested in learning more? Contact R POWER today.