In Taino symbology, twins were born in the same cave as the sun and the moon. They represented forces of nature, with both positive and negative elements, such as rain and drought. War, famine and disease have destroyed village after village, leaving only petroglyphs as proof of their mere mortal and humble existence. What we can glean from Exciting News. We are excited to announce that 28 Mile Distilling is transitioning distribution of our award-winning products to Chicago Beverage Systems (including Windy City), G& M Distributors and Koerner Distributing effective March 1, 2024. Thank you to all of our customers for your support!

One of Company Distilling's founders was a key part of the conversation in the law changes that afforded us all the opportunity to get into the industry. The collective effort was led by the Tennessee Distillers Guild and the legislative body of the state of Tennessee. We worked hand-in-hand with our legislators, other members of the alcohol

One of the most famous Taino sun symbols is the El Sol de Jayuya. Which is a stylized representation of the sun with a human face. It is often used in Puerto Rican tribal symbols and has become an iconic representation of Taino culture. The symbol is particularly important in the town of Jayuya. Where it is displayed on a ceremonial seat that
