For an average home (requiring 3KW of solar power), a solar roof could cost £10,000 to £15,000. Fitting solar panels to the roof would cost just over £6,000. Because solar tiles are less efficient, it would take longer before energy savings see a return on investment.

Solar roof tile technology is in its infancy by comparison. Solar roof tiles are also less efficient at producing electricity than solar panels, which means homeowners and businesses would be paying more for a less effective product simply because they look nicer. In addition, solar roof tiles can only be fitted if the entire roof is replaced.

The average solar roof tiles cost is between £10,000 and £15,000, but the identical 3KW solar panel system would cost just over £4,000 ??? less than half the price. Solar panels are an excellent method to gather solar energy and reduce energy bills.
