As Somalia navigates its path towards a sustainable energy future, building capacity within its energy sector is of paramount importance. With a wealth of natural resources, including uranium, and a growing population, the country must develop the skills, infrastructure, and institutional frameworks necessary to effectively manage its energy

From innovation to cooperation in Somalia's energy sector. So how did a war-torn nation with limited government functionality achieve such success? After Somalia's civil war left businesses with a public sector that ???
