SPECIALLY CHARGED ENERGY STORAGE TANK GW2

This is one of the main reasons why the Engineer makes a fantastic tank class for Guild Wars 2. The Engineer comes with a decent base HP but if you specialize in Scrapper then there's an added defense when using hammer weapons. Due to this, it's recommended you use weapons like Svaard's Warhammer, with high power and precision to still do Terminology time! Tank: In GW2 PvE, this is usually fulfilled by a character with very high damage evasion or immunity (rather than mitigation) that also brings with it unique buffs for the raid. Chronomancer was always the go-to in this regard in HoT days, now there are a few other professions that can also fill the role- Renegade with an alacrity build or Firebrand with ???

SPECIALLY CHARGED ENERGY STORAGE TANK GW2

Energy Storage contains mostly skills related to energy management, as well as the 3 Elementalist self heals and 1 damage spell. Unlike in many other role-playing games, energy regeneration is not based on maximum energy. Thus increasing Energy Storage is not in itself a form of energy management.

What Does a Tank Look Like in GW2? In Guild Wars 2, tank classes don't follow the heavy armor sword and shield tank stereotype. Here tanks can be medium armor classes, heavy armor, even light armor classes. They usually act like supports providing defensive boons like Protection, Aegis, and Stability while keeping the boss busy and pointed away from allies.

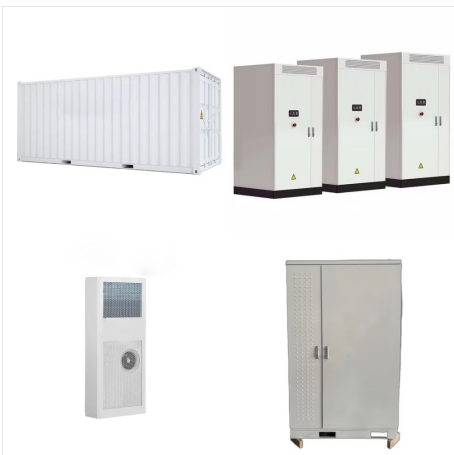

In detail:-Each arrow on your energy bar stands for one energy per second. As an example, if you have 3 arrows lit up on the right side, you are regenerating 3 energy per second.-Upkeep skills decrease the amount of energy you gain per second, and can make it degenerate per second as well. On the tooltip, it will list a "-X" number.
