

What are solar company reviews?

Solar company reviews focus on the installation companies that provide services to residential clients. These reviews talk about customer service, quality of workmanship, and general client experience. Use these to decide which local installation company to choose for your home solar project. Solar panel reviews concentrate on the equipment.

Are solar panels worth the cost?

Solar panels can be worth the cost for some, but not every rooftop is suitable for solar panels. In the northern hemisphere, panels produce the most electricity facing south, although east- and west-facing panels work, too.

How do solar companies make money?

Solar companies employ a variety of sales strategies, from in-house sales teams to third-party companies. Tesla's solar arm relies heavily on online inquiries. While there are industry guidelines for consumer protection, tactics vary from company to company and, as the report from Detroit showed, they can verge on dishonesty.

Are salespeople flouting the solar tax credit?

Going in with a strong understanding of some key solar topics can help you spot when a salesperson is flouting those guidelines. Salespeople are likely to tout the federal solar tax credit. When you install solar panels (and certain other related technology) you receive a portion of the cost back on your taxes.

Are solar salespeople a bad thing?

But the solar industry is full of bad actors, with solar salespeople knocking at your door with misleading offers and overpromised savings. Solar salespeople might try to lure you in with promises of free solar panels and limited-time special deals. In most cases, these are just aggressive sales tactics they'll use to rush you into a contract.
