With its huge rural areas missing any connection to the national power grid, the demand of off-grid solar projects in Paraguay is growing. To supply those remote territories with drinking water, The meeco Group, a Swiss-based clean energy provider, developed special solar water pumping solutions, the sun2flow system.

Paraguay could benefit from energy diversification by opening a solar farm. This would offer multiple economic and social advantages. First, it would create direct and indirect jobs during its construction, operation, and maintenance, benefiting local communities.

Con una inversi?n proyectada de $100 millones, Penguin Solar aprovechar? los recursos solares en ?reas estrat?gicas como el Chaco paraguayo, donde existe una gran necesidad de energ?a. La planta, que se extender? sobre 200 hect?reas y contar? con m?s de 200,000 paneles solares, se convertir? en un s?mbolo de progreso y sostenibilidad.

With the construction of a photovoltaic plant capable of generating 120 MW of electricity, Penguin Solar will not only provide 100% clean energy to communities and industrial sectors but also contribute to diversifying the country's National Interconnected System, which currently relies heavily on energy from our three hydroelectric plants.
